

Appl. No. 10/634,023
Amdt. dated Oct. 8, 2004
Reply to Office Action of Oct. 4, 2004

REMARKS

In the Office Action, the Examiner raised a restriction requirement, identifying two distinct inventions, as follows:

- I. Claims 1-13, drawn to a hollow golf club head.
- II. Claims 14-19, drawn to a method of making a hollow golf club head.

In response, Applicants elect Invention I. Applicants, of course, reserve the right to file a divisional application directed to the non-elected invention. Also by this Amendment, Applicants have amended the Title of the Invention to reflect the restriction of the application to a golf club head.

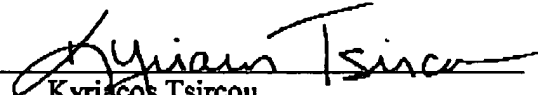

The application should now be in condition for substantive examination.
